JAYNE HOWARD FELDMAN

You've landed here upon the doorstep of this website for a reason. You've been guided here by your Guardian Angel. An invisible hand led you here because in some way...some how...you've been whispering a personal prayer asking for peace in your life.

Our lives can be so chaotic, challenging and fast-paced that we sometimes have to rethink and re-train ourselves to live at a peaceful pace. Sometimes our lives seem mind-boggling and complex. We begin to feel like puzzles with a million pieces. You've been lovingly guided here by your Guardian Angel to reconnect with your own inner simplicity...the true "piece of you" that is "the peace of you"

Maybe you haven't had the finances or time to "get-away" on an outer vacation to a place where you reconnect with peacefulness. Or maybe you did take a vacation and it seems like a distant memory. Your Guardian Angel has brought you here to remember and reconnect with the place of peace that is inside of you.
 Your Guardian Angel has guided you here to experience taking a sacred walk in that place of peace - a walk into oneness with our soul.

This website's purpose is to assist you in regaining peace in your life and to inspire you to be a peacemaker here on earth. In the words of PEACE PILGRIM, "If you want to make peace, you must be peaceful." Being peaceful is being powerful. My service as EARTH ANGEL 4 PEACE is to bless you with inspirational ways to integrate inner and outer space to give yourself more room to grow in peace...to be "in peace".

Before you explore this website any further, take a few relaxing breaths and tune into an inner awareness - an intuitiveness - that is speaking to you by the very fact that you have arrived here at EARTH

ANGEL 4 PEACE.COM. You ARE connected to the angels. You DO have a Guardian Angel who cares about you abundantly. As Psalm 91 (Check out Psalm91angels.com) reveals to us, God created the Angels and gave your Guardian Angel the assignment of taking good care of you. And that is what your Guardian Angel is doing by guiding you here.

Consider your Guardian Angel playing the role of travel agent, one of the many roles the Angels fulfill in our lives. There is within you incredible sacred space waiting to be explored. Your Guardian Angel has booked a ticket just for you to discover where God's presence and peace resides with you.

"Peace is not an absence but a presence"
